The Place to Be

Good bye to long time BookMarkers member, Phyllis Finster. We wish you the very best and lots of good reading!

Valentine's Day is over, but you can still pick up a "Blind Date" at the library for the rest of the month. Just pick a wrapped book, take it home, read it and return, filling out a very brief question about how you enjoyed the book. Put your name in the box next to the display and you will be eligible for a prize!

Weather permitting, there will be a movie for adults, "The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel." You will follow a group of British retirees who decide to move to India. Judi Dench and Maggie Smith help to make this an interesting look at retirement. Coffee and popcorn are provided. Treats are always welcome. The library closes at 1:00 on Friday, so if you are wondering, due to weather, whether the movie will be shown, please call the library.

BookMarkers are reading "Little Bee" for the March discussion. Extra books are available at the library. The book group meets the second Tuesday of the month at 9:30 at the library.

FARM BUREAU DONATION--In an emergency situation where there is a shortage of food for your family or for yourself, individuals can go to the Family Development Center located in Guthrie Center. The coordinator can supply food packages, according to the number in the household, to provide a short time solution. Possible pantry supplies are items such as: meat, canned vegetables, cereal, soups, tuna, macaroni and cheese, hamburger helper, etc., depending on availability. There is no charge for the food pantry, but individuals will be asked to complete a basic intake form for applying for this emergency food pantry. Above, Ron Mortensen representing the Guthrie County Farm Bureau, presents a check to Tiffany Baier, Family Development Center coordinator, for $200.
