

Iowa Community Action Agency

New Opportunities is one of 17 Community Action Agencies serving the state of Iowa. Iowa's Community Action Agencies are locally-based private, non-profit organizations that network with a wide-array of local organizations to enhance the opportunities for low-income Iowans (children and families) to meet basic needs and develop their own capacity to do so.

Ashley is the Audubon County Family Development Center Coordinator. We are committed to helping low-income Iowans change their lives by breaking the cycle of poverty and removing the barriers to achieve self-sufficiency.

Making a Difference....

New Opportunities works closely with other local agencies to best serve our clients.

During the extreme heat of July 2017, our coordinator worked with one of our local partners, Audubon County Public Health, to connect with a client who needed an air conditioning unit due to health needs. The client was very thankful to have air conditioning for the rest of the hot Iowa summer!
