

LAKE CITY

Stewart Memorial to host 'Surviving the Holidays' program

Special to the Times Herald

Stephanie Bellcock, an advanced registered nurse practitioner-certified, and Linda Luhring, a licensed independent social worker, both at Stewart Memorial Community Hospital, will present SMCH's Lunch Connection program titled "Surviving the Holidays," tips on making the most of the upcoming holiday season, at noon Thursday, Nov. 7.

Stephanie Bellcock

Linda Luhring

The Lunch Connection will begin at noon in the Lower Level Conference Room at Stewart Memorial Community Hospital. Cost of $5 includes program and meal. The menu will include turkey with

TOY RUN

Ride jump-starts holiday gifts campaign for New Opp

LARRY DEVINE | TIMES HERALD

Motorcyclists make the turn at High Ridge Road and Woodland Drive as they near completion of the annual Christmas Toy Run.

By LARRY DEVINE

east to High Ridge Road and