

Moose donate to New Opportunities

Jerry Starman (left), representing Carroll Moose Lodge 273, presents a $200 check to New Opportunities for use in purchasing school supplies for area children. Accepting the donation is Albina Tigges (right), Family Development Center coordinator. The money was part of the proceeds from recent fundraising events held at the lodge. Classes resume for Carroll Community School District and Kuemper Catholic System on Tuesday, Aug. 19.