

January 30, 2013

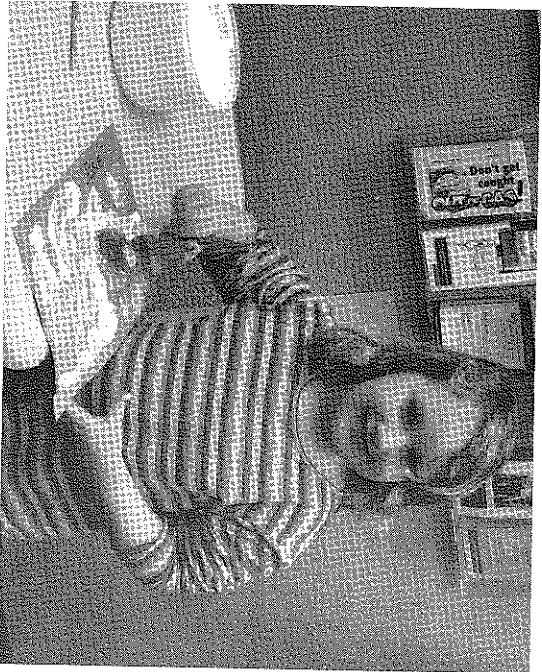

Daily Times Herald photos by Paige Gooden

CRAFTY KIDS

LEFT: Josie Griesman paints a picture with paste at New Opportunities' Family Literacy Night. About 10 kids and their families showed up for the event.

RIGHT: Amia Schoon draws a snowman after rolling dice to choose what picture she wanted to color.

ABOVE: Luke Grabes paints using paste at a Family Literacy night at New Opportunities' Head Start. The family literacy night is designed to bring families together and let parents see what the children do during the day. Every student at the preschool, who is either 3 or 4 years old, was invited to attend. The preschool is currently recruiting new students for next year. To attend the preschool, children will need to be 3 or 4 by Sept. 15. For questions, call Magen Fineran at 712-830-9442.

January 30, 2013