

Donations Made to Family Development Center

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY TIMES HERALD

Top: Bruce Boehm (right), president of the Carroll Lions Club, presents a $300 check to Albina Tigges, director of the Family Development Center at New Opportunities. The donation will be used to help fund the FDC's back-to-school program, which provides school supplies for students from low-income families in Carroll County. Above: Hawkeye Care Center residents and family assist the Family Development Center by collecting school items that will be donated to area students. Helping the donation are (from left) Wendy Bock, Wyatt Kruse, Channing Reynolds and Tiffany Roetman.
