

Iowa Community Action Agency

New Opportunities is one of 16 Community Action Agencies serving the state of Iowa. Iowa's Community Action Agencies are locally-based private, non-profit organizations that network with a wide-array of local organizations to enhance the opportunities for low-income Iowans (children and families) to meet basic needs and develop their own capacity to do so.

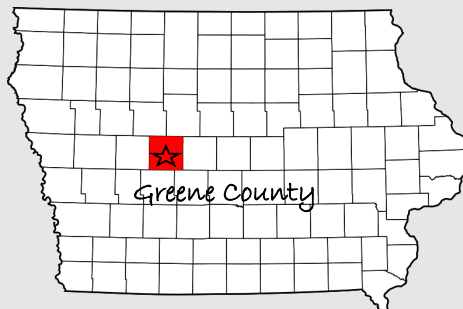

Teresa is the Greene County Outreach Center Coordinator. New Opportunities is committed to helping low-income Iowans change their lives by breaking the cycle of poverty and removing the barriers to achieve self-sufficiency.

Making a Difference....

A young couple struggling to pay their heating bill and rent came to the Outreach Center. The coordinator was able to assess the family situation and connect them to services through New Opportunities, as well as other partner agencies in the community. Teresa was also able to connect the family to WIC, thus providing nutritious food to the expecting mother. The couple felt their burden was lifted and felt very grateful for help during their time of feeling lost and unsure of where to turn.
