

ROYAL NEIGHBORS DELIVER BACKPACKS

SPECIAL TO THE GUTHRIE CENTER TIMES

Royal Neighbors Chapter 7072 Guthrie Center members Marlene Sunds, Mary Jo Laughery and Karen Sparks delivered 43 backpacks to be filled with school supplies to New Opportunities coordinator Rhonda Huggins for children needing them to begin school this fall. Royal Neighbors has been busy in August with helping Tori's Angels at the Gospel Sing, hosting the community dinner at the Activity Center, delivering fiddle blankets to three nursing homes, baking and serving cookies for the Lions at the blood bank, delivering meals on wheels, holding a membership drive meeting and finally helping member Marlene Sunds with the Difference Maker golf fundraiser for the ACGC softball program. Coming up next for this busy bunch is the Guthrie County Fair where they will be assisting in the Art Hall and helping with the Spaghetti Dinner following the parade at the Activity Center.
