New Opportunities is partnering with Coon Rapids—
Bayard Community School and the United States
Department of Agriculture to offer the Summer Food Service Program this summer in Coon Rapids.

- All children 1— 18 may participate in the Summer Food Service Program, there are no income guidelines.
- New Opportunities goal is to feed all children that attend the Summer Food Service Program. However, we cannot guarantee every child will get a meal as there is no required registration.
- Children 10 & under must be supervised by an adult unless attending summer school.
- Meals must be consumed by children on site.
- Thank you to the Coon Rapids—Bayard Schools for partnering to make this program a success!
- Check our website www.newopp.org for Summer Food Service Program updates!

Please join New Opportunities this summer for food and fun!
