

LIONS CLUB GROCERY GRAB

A BIG WIN FOR AVAILA

ANNIE MEHL | TIMES HERALD

Above, the winning Availa Bank Grocery Grab team, including (from left) Faye Riesberg, Michael Willson and Kenzie Wittrock, holds this year's trophy. Members of the bank competed against 11 other businesses during the Grocery Grab and raised a total of $3,733.91, which will be donated to Carroll Community of Concern and New Opportunities. Below, after raising a total of $3,733.91 during the third-annual Grocery Grab, local businesses and organizations present Availa Bank with the winning cup and provide the check to local food pantries Aug. 12. Pictured are (from left) Ashley Ricke, Carroll Lions Club; Roxanne Reinart, director of Carroll Community of Concern food pantry; Michael Willson, Availa Bank; Kristina Grossman, center coordinator for New Opportunities' family development center; Faye Reisberg, Availa Bank; and Adam Lindsey, Hy-Vee.

