Hundreds lined up for a meal and a "Happy Mother's Day" in Manning last weekend.

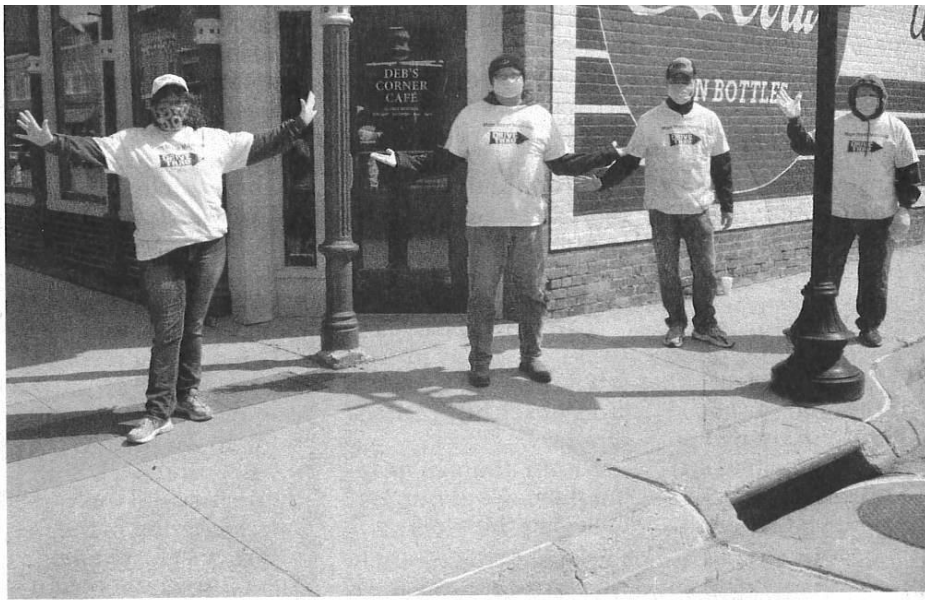

A Main Street Manning-hosted a "Drive-Thru Mother's Day" saw brisk business May 10 in another community-wide initiative to bring residents together in a socially distant way during the coronavirus epidemic.

Marked stopping points and masked volunteers led a train of cars on a cruise through Manning's downtown to pick up meals and gifts for Mom, a coordinated effort to support local businesses.

"Over the past seven weeks, each of us has witnessed firsthand the negative impact the pandemic has had on area restaurants, retail businesses, school events, holidays and just about anything
